The above-named offender is requesting to travel to Tijuana, Baja California, Mexico from May 25 through May 30, 2017, to undergo Bariatric surgery.

Winn is in compliance with her conditions of supervision, and is active in outside programs which not only better herself, but also her community. Winn has provided documentation for the bariatric surgery, and has been approved by her physician to proceed. Winn's roommate went through with the surgery in December, and has experienced great success.

The offender reports she will travel to Mexico on the 25th, undergo surgery on the 26th, and will require a three-day hospital stay. According to her documentation, she will be released on May 30, 2017, after 11:00 a.m.

The probation office has no objection to Winn's travel to Mexico for this surgery. The United States Attorney's Office was contacted regarding their position on Winn's travel.
